

Elections 2013

On Sunday November 17th, 2013, the Supervisory Council of the UMJCA will hold elections for the Central Board and the Synagogue Boards of Shaare Shalom, Young Mashadi Jewish Center and Shaare Tova. Our community has reached its success through unity, perseverance and dedication to community. Each and every one of us has a duty to volunteer at some point in our life, in order to build a better future for our children. The HaChodesh committee offers a special thank you to all those who volunteer their time and services to better our great community. Best of luck to all those running. We remind all congregants that you are all welcome to volunteer and serve the community at all times.

Mashadi Tennis Tournament Results

This year's annual Mashadi Tennis Tournament took place during the summer months. Over 60 Mashadi community members had enrolled and took part in this tournament. It took a total of 12 weeks to complete and was run for both singles and doubles. Some registered to play in both and some just in one. During the finals that took place on a recent Sunday at the residence of Mehdi and Ania Nassimi, the winners and runners up were as follows:

Singles: Winner: Ariel Hakimi, Runner Up: David Karimzadeh
Doubles: Winners: David Karimzadeh and Sammy Hakimian

Plaque Dedication in Memory of Our Late Friend, Behrouz Dilmanian

As you may be aware, in recent months we have been selling fine quality Israeli olive oil and other Israeli products at various Mashadi community events. Proceeds of the sales will benefit the dedication of a plaque at Israel's Weizmann Institute of Science in memory of our late friend, Behrouz Dilmanian. Throughout his life, Behrouz strove to be informed and be exemplified the noble pursuit of knowledge. We feel that a dedicated room in his honor at the Weizmann Institute, an organization that shares Behrouz's high regard for education, is a fitting tribute. We are writing to ask all community members who support this worthy cause to join us in raising funds and awareness for the campaign.
