

HOW TO PAY FOR COLLEGE WITHOUT GOING BROKE

This workshop will offer parents and high school students the latest information about college tuition discounts, scholarships, grants and financial aid. Discover the top ten strengths your student will need to gain admission to a competitive college and learn how to select the college with the "best fit". Find out how selecting the right college can reward you with the most in merit scholarships and need based aid. This workshop is a must for parents and high school students.

This 90-minute workshop will include the following topics:

Why Taking Charge Is Important
Knowing The Written and Unwritten Rules
Common Myths and Misconceptions
College Admissions
Understanding the PSAT, SAT and ACT Exams

- Fundamentals of Financial Aid
- Finding Scholarships
- Major Money Sources
- How Much Will I Have To Pay?
- How Much Will College Cost?

All are welcome

1 session / No charge

Instructor: Jan and Tony Esposito,
Lerner & Esposito College Consultants, Inc.

Day: Tuesday

Date: May 13th

Time: 8:00 p.m - 9:30 p.m

- Building The Financial Aid Package
- The Award Letter
- Negotiating With Schools
- Advanced Moves in Financial Aid

Jan and Tony Esposito are leading college consultants in the New York area. Their mission is to provide families with state of the art tools and techniques needed to navigate the road to higher education. They are the creators of the "College Coaching" program for parents and students. They are experts in the field and have advised thousands of parents on how to send their children to the college of their choice with the least amount of debt.

Jan and Tony are highly sought after speakers and media favorites with their insights on family dynamics, college admissions and financial aid. They are professional members of the Independent Educational Consultants Association (IECA), the National Association of College Admissions Counselors (NACAC) and the New York State Association of College Admissions Counselors (NYSACAC).

