SOCIAL SECURITY, MEDICARE AND LONG TERM CARE

Join us on Tuesday, November 17th at 8:30pm at Ohr Esther! People today are living longer and a large number of people will need to rely on social security, medicare and long-term care sometime during their life. The risk is very real, and, unfortunately, much more likely than most people perceive. Does your financial strategy account for potential long-term care needs? This may be the time to re-evaluate your situation. RSVP to avital@mashadi.org.

Corned Beef Hash with Poached Egg

by @TheKosherChef

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons margarine
4 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
1 large onion, chopped
4 potatoes, peeled and cut into 1/4-inch cubes
1 large carrot, chopped
1 pack sliced corned beef, cut into squares
1 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley
1/2 teaspoon salt and ground black pepper, or to taste
1 poached egg
Dried thyme for garnish

Melt margarine with the olive oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Add the onions and cook just until it begins to brown, about 5 minutes; stir in the potatoes and carrot, and cook for about 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in the sliced corned beef, parsley, salt, and pepper. Let the mixture cook until hash is crisp and browned, stirring often, 15- 20 more minutes. Pour into serving dish.

Poached egg: Fill up a pot of with water. Let it boil until it reaches 200 degrees. Crack an egg into a bowl (this will make it easier to pour into the pot). When the water reaches 200 degrees, drop the egg into the water. Let it cook for 3-4 minutes. (If it sticks to the bottom, gently push it so it can float to the top). Take it out gently with a spatula and place it over the hash. Slice the poached egg in half. Sprinkle with thyme. Serve and enjoy!
